

Q2 Survey question 2. Adopt editorial, but not substance changes to the by-laws clarifying the duties of GIPS officers. Moved text is in blue, deleted text is in red. The deleted text is redundant and covered in section 5.2. Vote 'yes' to adopt changes.

4.6. Duties of Each Officer.The President shall be the principal executive officer of the GIPS. The President shall preside at all meetings, serve as Chair of the Executive Committee, and take responsibility as a representative of the GIPS. The President officially receives donations, bequests, or gifts to the GIPS on behalf of the GIPS. Ad hoc committees are appointed by the President as needed. In the event there is an unexpected vacancy in the position of the Past President, the President shall appoint a member of the Nominating Committee to fulfill the duties of the Past President for the duration of the term. The President-Elect, in absence or incapacity of the President, shall perform the duties of the President. The President-Elect shall serve on the Executive Committee. The President-Elect shall make recommendations to the GIPS officers for all appointments to the Standing Committees, as described in Article V. The President-Elect will also appoint a member of the GIPS to complete the term of any member of a Standing Committee whose position is vacated. The Vice President, in absence or incapacity of the President and President-Elect shall perform the duties of the President. The Vice President, in the absence or incapacity of the President-Elect, shall perform the duties of the President-Elect. The Vice President shall serve on the Executive Committee. In the event there is an unexpected vacancy in the position of the Vice President, the Nominating Committee shall appoint a committee chair, committee member or regular member to fulfill the duties of the Vice President for the duration of the term. The Secretary-Treasurer shall keep minutes of the Annual and Executive Committee meetings, distribute notices to members of GIPS, keep custody of documents of GIPS, including contracts that the Executive Committee has approved, serve on the Executive Committee, maintain current membership roster, receive membership dues, keep records of financial documents for governmental agencies, banks or other financial institutions with approval of the President for expenses used solely for the GIPS. All such disbursements will be reported at the Annual Meeting, as part of the financial report of the Secretary-Treasurer. The Past President shall serve as the Chair of the Nominating Committee. In the event there is an unexpected vacancy in the position of the Past President, the President shall appoint a member of the Nominating Committee to fulfill the duties of the Past President for the duration of the term.

Answered: 103 Skipped: 2

| Answer Choices | Responses |
|----------------|-----------|
|----------------|-----------|

| | | |
|--------------|--------|------------|
| yes | 98.06% | 101 |
| no | 1.94% | 2 |
| Total | | 103 |